NARRATIVE:

Pelenato has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18 years old and includes convictions for multiple possession of narcotic controlled substance, transport / import a controlled substance, possession of controlled substance for sale, assault with a deadly weapon and false identification. She has served multiple state prison terms the longest term being seven (7) years for transport / import a controlled substance. Jones was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on November 16, 2011 after serving a seven (7) year term for transport / imports a controlled substance. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. She subsequently failed to report to her probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in September 2012 after Pelenato absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Pelenato qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because her current commitment offense for transport / import a controlled substance is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. Her prior criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make her a most wanted. If you know her whereabouts please contact...
